- n.b. A.C.F. Award certificates earned when a cat was entire could be carried on toward the final award after the animal was desexed.

The awarding of a certificate is to be regarded as a mark of excellence in a particular exhibit. It is not to be regarded as an automatic award in any respect.

*Application for title for cat registered with an affiliate of CCCA may be made as above, through the ACF affiliate control in the state of residence, or may be sent direct to the ACF Secretary, on the appropriate form, with ten original certificates and payment.

Application for cat registered with an ACF affiliate must be made as above.

Clarification re additional levels:

- Each step will require ten Award of Excellence certificates.
- All exhibits still compete for the one certificate per group, per sex, i.e. Group 2 Entire Adult Female.
- Each certificate will cost $20.00.
- Past AoE certificates not yet used can be used for these new awards
- Cats may receive this award posthumously.
